Life is Full of Surprises

The National Oldtime Fiddlers' Contest and Festival®
Presented by Steve's Hometown Motors is one of the best surprises around. Since 1953 Weiser, Idaho has played host to fiddlers and friends from around the world.

Dedicated to preserving and perpetuating fiddle music for generations to come, this annual event offers many opportunities to listen and learn from some of the finest musicians in the world.

Pr

The National Oldtime Fiddlers' Contest would like to welcome Alaska as the 2009 Host State at the contest in Weiser. Just what is a Host State? Every year the NOTFC features a state to be the "Host" at the contest site in Weiser. The Host State is the opening act at the contest site and is featured in the Fiddle Parade. For more info. please contact the Fiddle Office at 208-414-0255.

Spend some time exploring our website. You'll find information for inspired contestants, ultimate fiddle fans, musicians that love to entertain, vendors who want to join in the fun, and our good ol' friends who keep coming back.

We hope you'll join us and become a part of our fiddling family. Visit us at the National Oldtime Fiddlers' Contest[®] and Festival June 16th through 21st.
